

THE HERALD.

JNO. P. BARRETT, Editor.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 20, 1885.

It is the opinion in Washington that Kentucky will receive no more diplomatic favors.

This is not Dr. Meador's year to run for the Senate; it is apparently Brother Hubbard's.

If the Morgantown Republican is as long-winded as its editorial writer, it will not die young.

The poor President is having a fearful hard time of it: the Butler county Republicans have denounced and crushed him.

The revised version of the Old Testament was given to the public in London yesterday and will be published in New York to-morrow.

The failure of the Spencer county jury to convict degenerate young Crittenden is another stain upon our gallant, gallant State's escutcheon.

The Bear and the Lion haven't got up a fight yet. Because Gladstone is trying to avoid a long and destructive war, the newspapers call him white-livered.

Dr. John E. W. Thompson, a young colored man, and a graduate of Yale College, has been selected by President Cleveland to be Minister Resident and Consul General of the United States to Haiti.

The Ohio Legislature has enacted a law prohibiting all dealing in "margin" "futures," and persons engaged in these transactions will be adjudged guilty of gambling and will be subject to heavy fines and imprisonment.

In Texas last week a mob of citizens released by force of arms forty convicts who were at work on a farm outside the penitentiary walls. The feeling against convict labor in direct opposition to free labor, was the cause of the mob's action.

Riel, the half-breed rebel in the Northwest Territory, was captured Saturday by Canadian scouts. He said he intended to surrender anyhow. He claimed that he was not the main leader in the rebellion. The capture of Riel will probably end the insurrection.

Gen. James T. Robinson, of Lexington, has been appointed Collector of Internal Revenue for the Seventh Kentucky District, the place Capt. Blackburn lost for his indiscretion when he was a young soldier. Gen. Robinson was a strong Union man during the war.

No United States Senator has yet been chosen by the Illinois Legislature. Weaver, a Republican, was returned in place of Shaw, Democrat, lately deceased. Over-confidence among the Democrats was the cause of Weaver's victory. It is not certain that Gen. Logan will be selected to succeed himself, though the Republicans have a majority.

Several cities throughout the country are taking sanitary precautions against cholera. An attack of this terrible pestilence is feared this year, and all precautionary measures are very timely. In Europe inoculation with the cholera germ is being used as a preventive. At Valencia, where the plague produced great ravage, thousands of people were inoculated, and a rapid abatement of the epidemic was noted as a result. Inoculation against cholera would not likely be popular in this country, unless the destroyer itself should loom up and scare us.

The New Orleans Exposition will close on the 30th instant. The show has not succeeded in a financial way, but has given complete satisfaction to the immense number of sight-seers that have visited it. Expositions are valuable as factors to improve business and culture, and inspire a better public feeling in the nation. People of different communities get acquainted with each other, and thus misunderstandings are corrected, and friendly associations founded. By no means convenient way can this be done than by the reasonable occurrence of these great exhibits of industry and art.

Bishop Hood, a colored Methodist preacher, and a prominent man, was in Louisville recently, and while there was interviewed by a reporter in regard to the present condition and prospects of his race. He thought his people had improved remarkably rapidly since the war, had become less superstitious, and more adapted to the social requirements of a citizen. He rejoiced to believe that the color line in politics was fast passing away. It would certainly be best for both whites and blacks. The negroes in the South, he said, were largely indebted to the white people for aid and encouragement in educational matters. The Bishop had met President Cleveland, was well pleased with him, and he and his people were becoming convinced that the President was a grand man and meant to do what was right by them. The Bishop showed his good sense in the following remarks of his: "As to the social feature of the great race problem my mind is fully made up. There is less mixing of the blood now than formerly. Ten or twenty years ago one-fifth of every congregation were mulattoes, whereas now they do not make up one-tenth. If any approach is made towards social equality it will have to come from the whites. Our race will maintain its identity for ages yet to come. We're going to live here together in peace and harmony for years. We are necessary for each other. I don't want 'social equality,' so-called. I simply want my rights; I want to be able to buy anything I want like other people and am opposed to obtaining my presence where I am not wanted. And that is the sentiment of all my people, with but a few silly exceptions, who wish to be noticed in the cars and at the hotels."

GET READY.
Mr. Jesse S. Williams, of Beaver Dam, was nominated by the Democrats at the primary election last Saturday to represent Ohio county in the next General Assembly. The total vote cast was very small, caused by the dearth of contention between the two candidates on any question of public interest. Mr. Williams' majority was a large one, over a worthy competitor. Dr. Patterson is a thorough gentleman, as well as a Democrat, and will not get mad and renounce allegiance to the party he has very faithfully and effectively served, because he was not its choice last Saturday.

Mr. Williams was the Democratic nominee four years ago for the place he now aspires to; he beat a tough and veteran Republican warrior, and gave general satisfaction in the performance of his official duties. He is sound on the convict-labor question, is a friend to education and to temperance, and what entirely pleases the average Dark and Bloody Grounder, is for low taxation. He can be signally elected in August if his political companions strive anything like they did when Dick Hocker was made High Sheriff.

The glorious victory in November last affords us no reason to relax our discipline and hardihood, and succumb to the enervating effects of prosperity's sunshine; for our ancient enemy, though routed and confounded, will soon recover, is indeed recovering, and will pester us still, will hang about us, like the red-skins used to do in colonial times before the settlements of our fore-fathers, like wild beasts, once drunk of blood, that prowl around a Dutch kraal in Basutoland. We must be prepared to resist him. Everlasting alertness is the price of office.

Rockport.
The primary election at this place Saturday was exceedingly dull. Something paralyzed our political nerves. It was so tame that "Homestead Tobacco Grower" could not have stimulated the occasion sufficient to raise a row. The result was 20 votes cast for Williams and 18 for Patterson. By-the-way, when the last hope of an Ohio county man for the State Senate is gone, we still have a more than Robt. Thomas, editor of the Central City Argus. He is just of the right caliber to fill the air with (—) relies every shot. (I'll fill this ellipsis immediately after the 20th of June.)

Mr. Wm. Martin, of Henderson, came up last week and left with his daughter, Miss Dora, for home, Friday. Thirteen sullen looking tigers were unloaded here the 12th inst., and shipped for Airdrie on the steamer Bowling Green. Eighty more will be brought down from Frankfort to-morrow night on the 1 o'clock train. They all go to Airdrie to quarry rock for the branch penitentiary at Kuttawa. It is said that Wepler, who is serving a two-year sentence for killing Harry Clay, of Louisville, will be brought down, the untimely death of promising young Clay, the grandson of the great Henry Clay, at the hands of this man, made Wepler notorious, and he will be looked for with the most eager curiosity.

HORTON MAY 18, 1885.

Editor Herald:
Business is very good at this place, as the stove factory has started, and men are working in the woods extensively.

Mr. J. J. Hyatt, of Louisville, was in Horton this week on business.

Mr. R. H. Hines, of Logansport, Ky., formerly of this place, gave us a call on Sunday last.

Mr. F. W. Wymond loaded his stove mill, at Horton switch, and shipped it to East Troy, Tenn.

Rev. L. M. Russell entertained a large congregation at Bethel church on Sunday last with an able sermon, after which Bro. G. J. Bean baptized the little son of Mr. Em Boswell. Bro. Boswell is here waiting on his brother Crit, who had a leg broken by jumping from a car while in motion. Crit has been moved from Mr. John Walla's to R. B. Thompson's, where he will remain until he is able to be carried home.

Kentucky Patents.
The following patents were granted for the week ending May 12th, 1885, reported expressly for this paper by Jos. H. Hunter, Solicitor of American and Foreign Patents, 330 F Street, Washington, D. C.:

Jos. Fennell, Cynthiana, horse boot; E. W. Van Duzen, Jr., Newport, cooking stove.

Dr. J. W. Meador for Senator.

LEWISPORT, KY., May 5, 1885.

Please permit me through the columns of your paper to say a few words to the voters of Ohio county and the 8th Senatorial District. I would most particularly address myself to the Republican portion of it.

I see that quite a number of the Republican voters of Hartford and Rosine have signed a call on Mr. E. C. Hubbard to accept the nomination for the State Senate. I am not a little surprised to see it. However, I want it distinctly understood that I consider Mr. Hubbard a very worthy gentleman and well qualified for the position, yet justice demands that the claims of another gentleman be considered. Yes, another gentleman equally as well qualified, a self-made man and one who has borne the brunt in several contests. That man is no other than Dr. Jas. W. Meador, of the Fordville district in Ohio county. In 1871 he led a forlorn hope as the Republican candidate for Representative. In 1873 he was their nominee and defeated the nominee of the Democratic party by a majority of 292. In 1875 he was desirous of an endorsement, but the Republican committee deemed it expedient to leave the field clear, so he withdrew at their bidding and Mr. Hocker had a walk-over alone. In 1877, in spite of some of the leaders, the hardy yeomanry elected him their Representative over the Democratic nominee, by a majority of 58. In 1879, as we all do know, a little Republican paper called the Ohio County News was started at Hartford. The Republican party aimed to try their strength and make a party fight. When I say the Republican party in this connection (referring to the Ohio County News and party fight), I have reference to the leaders, who take an interest in party success. They met in convention at Hartford and without the knowledge or consent of Dr. Meador nominated him as their candidate for Representative. At that time Dr. Meador was in delicate health; his wife bedridden with consumption, and his affairs generally in such condition that he could not with much prospect of success make the race. He sent a letter of declination, which letter was not published by said Ohio County News. At Hartford the word was, as I was informed, "We will run him anyway." Finally he consented to make the race, but did it under protest, believing, as he expressed himself to me and to others that he was "going to the slaughter." He was, it seems, firmly of the opinion that it would be impossible for him to be successful when party lines were drawn.

All who know him know that Dr. Meador is liberal-minded in politics, and this and other reasons more substantial have in every race secured for him a great many Democratic votes. The Ohio County News being opposed by the HERALD (more ably edited) drew party lines. Dr. Meador more plainly than any of us, saw defeat before him. Many of us gave him the assurance that in case of his defeat he should have the nomination for the office of State Senator in 1881. He was defeated by a majority of 195 notwithstanding he received the largest vote of his life.

In 1881 the convention met at Rockport to nominate a candidate for the Senatorship, and at that convention Dr. Meador's name was not presented or even mentioned. Republicans of the 8th Senatorial District, which district Dr. Meador while your Representative helped to form, what is your plain duty? I was a citizen of Ohio county until a short while ago, and believe I know who are worthy the support of the Republican party in that county. Were I to answer for you I would say, Nominate Dr. Meador, an able man and the best canvasser in your district. B. A. W.

Grand Army Notice.

Sergeant Remus T. Whittinghill, Post No. 11, at Fordville, will decorate the Soldiers' Graves, at the Whittinghill Cemetery, on the farm of the sergeant's father, Peter T. Whittinghill, near the Breckenridge county line, on Saturday, May the 30th, 1885. The orations will be delivered by Captain Anderson Byers, of Grayson County, James G. Haswell, of Hardinsburg, and Dr. J. W. Meador, of Shreve, Ohio County, and others. The public in general are invited to attend this solemn service, regardless of political opinion. Dinner will be prepared on the ground for all and there will be music with life and drum.

Greenback Convention.

At the Senatorial Convention of the National Greenback party of the 8th Senatorial District, held at Morgantown, Ky., May 11, 1885, Jas. H. Guyl, called to order by C. W. Neel, Secretary, and E. Neel, Secretary.

G. J. Bean, of Ohio county, J. M. Cook, B. L. D. Guyl, John Baker and J. E. Sharer were appointed a Committee on Resolutions, who, after retiring, returned with the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

The National Greenback party of the 8th Senatorial District, in Convention assembled, announce the following principles: 1st. We declare the Republican party by its financial Legislation has shown that it ought not to be trusted with power, it has fostered monopolies to the detriment of the people. It has collected more than three thousand million of dollars in taxes from the people to pay on the bonded debt of the nation, and while it is true that the national debt has been reduced in number of the volume of money, prices of labor and property have been so decreased that it would now take more days work, more bales of cotton, pounds of tobacco, bushels of corn or wheat to pay the public debt than it would have taken at the close of the war at the prices then. The Democratic President is advocating the same financial policy as that pursued by the Republican party. The object and the result of such a policy is to oppress the many for the benefit of the few.

2d. We still rejoice that the Supreme Court of the United States, despite the skill and ability of the attorney of the shysters, decided that our monetary views are constitutional.

3d. We demand that the coinage of the 42 2/3 silver dollar, which was the original standard of value from the organization of the Government until demonstrated in the interest of funded wealth and monopolies he made free and unlimited, the same as gold coinage, and we denounce all attempts to suspend the coinage of silver.

4th. If there be any surplus of silver dollars in the Treasury, as was said by Arthur and Cleveland, we demand that they be used to pay the bonded debt of the nation and thus increase the circulating medium and stop the interest which is eating up the substance of the people.

5th. The thanks of all good people are due to those gallant and patriotic Congressmen of all parties, who withstood the combined assault of the outgoing and incoming administrations made against silver money. Their names will go down to posterity linked with the patriots and sages of all ages.

6th. If it is necessary that either gold or silver should be the standard of value, but no such necessities exist, silver is the most suitable and should be made the standard rather than gold, as it is better adapted for a circulating medium than gold. Legal tender greenback money is a better circulating medium than either gold or silver.

7th. We demand a large volume of money and a low rate of taxation and all taxes should be justly and fairly imposed.

8th. This State has been almost wholly under Democratic management for many years and although the last Legislature increased the taxes the Treasury is still empty, even the pauper idlers' claims allowed at the September term, 1884, of the Circuit Court here, are yet unpaid.

9th. We demand a better financial management of state affairs.

10th. We demand that the criminal and penal laws be enforced for the protection of society and the reformation of offenders of any official or civil.

11th. We demand such a modification of the fish law as will allow the citizens of the county to catch a sufficient fish in any manner for consumption in the county of his residence.

12th. The common school law should be so amended as to allow the patrons of the school to select the books they desire their children to study and thus break up the school book monopoly and enable the children to obtain some benefit from the free schools of the county.

13th. We do not believe that the true spirit and intent of the law, nor justice allows the collection of tolls on rats, barges, boats, etc., which go over the dams on Green and Barren rivers, and if there be any law that allows such tolls we demand its immediate repeal.

14th. We earnestly appeal to all who favor the foregoing principles to unite with us in an earnest effort to carry out the same.

Hon. J. M. Cook of Butler county was unanimously nominated for Senator.

G. J. Bean, of Ohio county T. J. Ward and Love Casey, were appointed an Executive Committee for this Senatorial District with the usual power.

The Green River Republican, Butler County News, Hartford Herald, Central City Argus, Muhlenberg Echo, Times Gazette, National View, be requested to publish these proceedings.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

E. NEEL, Sec'y.

The enthusiasm of the Greenback party exceeded anything that ever has been since the organization of the party.

Wool Carding at Rosine.

The Rosine Mills are in a flourishing condition, with J. J. Layton's Roll Carding Machine attached. Come with your wool and grain and have your carding and grinding done at the same trip. Republican Convention.

Pursuant to call, the Republicans of Butler county met in convention in the Court House at Morgantown, Ky., on Monday, the 11th day of May, and was called to order by C. W. Neel, Chairman of the County Committee, and on motion, N. T. Howard was chosen Chairman and S. H. Tanner Secretary.

On motion the Chairman appointed J. W. Ward, W. S. Taylor, Granville Gray, J. C. Berry and J. W. Goodman a committee on resolutions, who, after retiring, reported the following resolutions:

We, the Republicans of Butler county, in convention assembled, refer with pride to the achievements of the Republican party, and with pleasure to the magnificent administration of President Arthur.

We refer with a feeling sense of admiration to the patriotic manner in which the Republican party yielded to the Democratic party without any threats of war or violence.

We congratulate the Republican party and the country upon the results of the investigation of the records of the U. S. Treasury by the Democratic officials that of all the hundreds of millions of money handled by the Republicans, but one mistake and that for only two cents has been discovered, notwithstanding all the charges of corruption made against them by Democratic speakers for the last 24 years.

We favor a liberal pension policy and condemn the appointment of Lamar, an ex-Confederate Congressman, as Secretary of Interior, thereby putting in his hands the allowance or rejection of all claims for pensions for disabilities etc., incurred in the late war for the Union.

We charge upon the Democratic officials of Kentucky ineptitude and corruption. They took charge of the State offices with an overflowing Treasury and they have increased the taxes from 25 to 52 cents per hundred dollars and that they have bankrupted the State and made it unable to pay its expenses.

We charge upon them the attempt to thrust into our mines and fields, convict labor felons convicted of every crime and abomination to compete with and disgrace the free labor of our State, and to take from them the opportunity to support their families by honest toil.

We condemn the Democratic party that while it has increased our taxes that it has given us no internal improvement, but on the contrary has given them away to rich private corporations.

We approve of the call for a Senatorial convention to meet at Rockport on the 20th day of June next, to nominate a Republican to represent us in the next Senate of Kentucky, and recommend as delegates to said convention: C. W. Neel, J. W. Ward, Jasper Berry, W. S. Taylor, Wm. Wand, Granville Gray, J. E. Taylor, S. H. Tanner, Mal Embrey, Wm. W. Embrey, J. W. Goodman, H. B. Moorehead, W. E. Githens, W. W. Reed, J. T. Rives, Wm. B. Davis, Felix Gray, A. J. Johnson, Nick Johnson, T. D. Turner, A. J. Rush, D. Poole, Marion Berry, W. W. Moore, Phillips Tuck and all other good Republicans.

That we request the publication of these proceedings in the Green River Republican, the Butler County News, the Hartford Herald and Greenville Echo.

Which resolutions were unanimously adopted, after which it was moved that the delegates from this county to the Rockport Convention be instructed to cast the vote of this county for E. C. Hubbard, of Hartford, to represent this Senatorial District in the next Senate of Kentucky, which motion was unanimously carried.

The Convention then adjourned sine die.

N. T. HOWARD, Chairman.

S. H. TANNER, Secretary.

Mr. Morton Declines.

Messrs. R. S. Lamm, S. Phillips, and others, Haysville, Ky.

GENTLEMEN:—

In answer to your gratefully appreciated call upon me in last week's issue of the Herald to become a candidate to represent this Senatorial District in the coming Legislature, I take this opportunity to say to you that uncontrollable circumstances of a private and business nature hinder me from complying with your request.

Wishing our great party a long career of power and usefulness, hoping our county and district nominees will be successful in August, and extending to you my earnest thanks,

I am respectfully,

A. L. MORTON.

Tobacco Stolen.

Wm. Hoops, a worthy citizen of Sutton, discovered recently that some vagabond had been taking tobacco from his barn during the nights past, selling it to the smokers at McHenry.

Mr. Hoops became very jealous in regard to who the villain was, but kept it a secret until it was rumored that it was the parties he suspected.

Mr. Hoops went to one of the parties and made mention of about five hundred pounds of his tobacco having been taken to which the villain responded that he and two other boys were the ones that took it. Mr. Hoops then demanded pay for his tobacco, which was handed to him with the greatest alacrity.

Land for Sale.

On Monday, May 25th, 1885, at the Court House door in Hartford, Ky., we will sell on a credit of six months, a tract of 55 acres of timbered land, on the south side of Rough creek, same owned by Sanford Tichenor.

A Catastrophe.

BY ONE WHO DOESN'T SATE.

Sailing so airily.
And with such grace;
Not a cloud—nor a sunbeam
On the pretty young face.

Around the hot link
Comes the skater once more,
Not a thought of the fate
Already in store.

All eyes are centered
On the vision so bright.
Eagerly watching
Her antics so light.

Take her up tenderly.
Lift her with care,
Smooth down the tresses
Of her pretty brown hair.

Bring on the champagne,
Give her a rest,
Speak low, tread lightly,
She was doing her best.

While her glist'ning "feet"
For the doctor has gone,
Bring out and rather
The amies on.

While eddying and whirling
She fell on the floor,
She won't have any fun
For ten days or more.

Then take her up tenderly,
Handle with care,
Open the windows
And give her more air.

Oh! how sad it is
Skating and falling,
Oh! how mad it is
Shipping and sprawling.

Isn't it the saddest sight
You ever saw?
Take her—oh, take her
Right home to her ma.

Red Front is the place to buy and sell all kinds of country produce. Handles more than all the other houses put together.

Anderson's Bazaar looked like a woolen mill on last Monday. All the wool in the county seemed to be unloaded there.

Don't fail to attend the dinner to be given by the ladies of town next Monday for the benefit of the Baptist Church.

Rev. G. J. Bean will preach the funeral of Wm. Shields, deceased, at Green River church, on the 1st Sunday in June, 1885.

Those attending court are earnestly requested to call at the Red Front and see the bargains in groceries, produce, provisions &c.

The temperance poem by R. Campbell, referred to last week, will be found in this issue. It is excellent. Do not fail to read it.

Judge W. F. Gregory lost a very fine Alderney milch cow last Thursday morning. The cow left a fine calf three or four days old.

The primary election passed off here very quietly Saturday. A very small vote was polled, resulting in a majority for Williams of 96.

Dr. L. A. King, of Calhoun, who has been in town in the practice of his profession, dentistry, for about a week, returned home to-day.

Remember when attending Circuit Court, that the Red Front is the place to get cheese, sausage, dried beef, crackers, cakes, cider &c.

The little boys of Spencer Bartlett killed a rattlesnake last Sunday, five feet long, which had 13 rattles. It was a very large snake for its length.

Mr. R. G. Caldwell, of Glasgow, traveling agent for D. M. Osborne & Co., found the Osborne Machines in the hands of Mr. D. F. Tracy booming.

Mr. A. Lankford, of Horse Branch, brought us a relic for our cabinet of curiosities, last Thursday. The specimen is a beautiful petrification of ancient fern. It was sent us by Miss Rosanna Lankford, of Horse Branch.

One of our young men says that his girl told him that ice cream and strawberries are good to remove freckles, and that if he thought anything of her he should endeavor to cure her. He says the only thing that bothers him is the thought that it will cost him about $1.50 a freckle.

Mr. George A. Brown, living about four miles east of Hartford, has been farming for himself for 47 years and in all that time has never failed a single year to raise corn to sell, after supplying his family and stock. We will venture to say that there is not another man in Ohio county who can beat this.

Messrs. Nantz and Neuner, Fourth Avenue, Louisville, Ky., have our high appreciation for a rare and lovely collection of potted plants and bulbs, including a variety of fuchsias, sweet-scented and blooming geraniums, roses, tube roses, heliotropes, set of new coleus, sunlax, rex begonia &c.; also for the fine size and healthy condition when they arrived. Thanks, gentlemen, thanks.

Mr. Elijah Hocker's meat house and hen house were burned last Thursday night. The buildings and contents were a total loss. It is supposed that the fire originated from the burning of a hen's nest Thursday morning. The meat house was just fifteen feet from the cook room, and it was all they could do to save the dwelling. The loss amounts to about $100, with no insurance.

Henry Westbrook, who lived a few miles north-east of Hartford, left Saturday night, taking with him four of his children, two horses, two mules, two wagons, all his farming implements, what money he had, two beds and everything else worth taking that he could get hold of, leaving his wife and three infant children penniless.

His two sons, Thomas and James, by his first wife, helped him off. He at first tried to convince his wife that he was going to visit his relatives. Mrs. Westbrook thinks he has gone to Warren county, where he once lived. A man surely must be void of all the nobler instincts of humanity, that would thus abandon his wife and infant children and leave them in a penniless, helpless condition.

My DEAR FRIENDS.—Did you know that the fifth Sunday in this month would see the biggest crowd of people in Hartford ever assembled in Ohio county at one time? Everybody is coming to witness the dedicatory ceremony of the Baptist church and hear Moody preach. The big-hearted people of Hartford will feed the multitude as long as they have a pound of meat or a handful of flour in their houses, but of course no town in the land would be able to supply the crowds that will roll into Hartford on that day. So my friends, if it is convenient, we would advise you to bring a basket of substantial along and spread it along side of ours in the court-house yard. If it isn't convenient to do so, come along anyhow, and we'll give you the best we have in the shop and try to make you happy all day. Come and let us have a grand time—such as our fathers used to have at the big 'meetings' in the long ago.

Mrs. Sam K. Cox and Mrs. Henry Field visited relatives in Owensboro several days last week.

Mrs. H. D. McHenry and daughter, Miss Isabelle, visited Louisville several days this and last week.

Dr. C. W. Layton and wife, of Rockport, were in town yesterday, the guests of the Commercial Hotel.

Mrs. Joshua Benton, of Rockport, was visiting relatives in town last week, returning home Wednesday.

Dr. N. J. Rains, of Rosine, accompanied by Miss Ella Day, were the guests of the Commercial Hotel Monday.

Mr. M. J. Reid, of Rockport, our agent and correspondent at that place, was in town last Monday and called to see us.

Our young friend, Henry B. Taylor, who has been quite sick for a week or ten days past, we are glad to learn, is up again.

Mrs. R. A. Patton, who went on the last trip of the Rosa Belle to visit her sister, Mrs. Stevens, returned home a few days ago.

Messrs. W. C. and George J. Askins, of Rockvale, Breckenridge county, were here Monday and visited the HERALD office.

Hon. Jesse Williams was in town Monday, and his many friends congratulated him upon his success in the primary election.

Hon. W. D. Coleman was in town Monday and was strongly solicited to ride the Senatorial horse, but he declined to mount him.

Miss Bessie Jackson, of Rockport, who had been visiting Miss Lula Buchanan for a week or ten days past, returned home last Wednesday.

N. H. Ford, Esq., of Livermore, called to see us yesterday. He will for a time be engaged buying timber and staves for Hugh Stafford, of Louisville.

Our young friend Mr. Willie May, of Haynesville, was in town last Friday and Saturday. Mr. May has just returned from an extended trip through Texas.

Mr. C. Gunther, representing the wholesale house of Leich, Vierling & Carlstedt, Evansville, Ind., was in town a day or two last week. He visited our office while here.

Dr. W. J. Berry, of Fort White, Florida, is visiting relatives in Hartford and Beaver Dam. He moved to Florida last fall and says he is much pleased with the country.

George Phillips, of Pleasant Ridge, was in town Saturday night and made some good music and gave a nice serenade. George is hard to turn down when it comes to drawing the bow.

Miss Fenia Bender, of Point Pleasant, was the guest of the Hartford House several days this and last week. Miss Bender is a former pupil of Hartford College, and is very popular in Hartford society.

Mr. John T. Jackson, of Rockport, has accepted a position in the mechanical department of the HERALD office, with the view of learning something of the mysteries of the newspaper art.

Mr. Wm. M. Martin, of Henderson, was in town last week. We had the pleasure of a call from him. He was accompanied home by his daughter, Miss Dora, who had been visiting the family of Mr. E. D. Thomas.

Miss Katie Hendrick, who has been teaching near Falls of Rough, is visiting friends in town. She is the guest of Mrs. Jennie Mosely. Miss Hendrick was a former teacher in Hartford College, and is well known to our people.

A country parson, after publishing a list of the prizes distributed at a recent cattle show, states that the gold medal was awarded to Mr. Y. Y. Z., "as being the finest beast."

A man was boasting that he had been married twenty years and had never given his wife a cross word. Those who know said he did not dare to; but he never mentioned it.

Washington Letter.

(From our regular correspondent.)
WASHINGTON, May 9, 1885.

Editor: Heretofore:

It is believed that the time has nearly arrived for some sweeping and cleaning in the Government offices here and elsewhere. Republican office holders who have been hugging the delusive phantom of hope, now wish they had something more substantial to anchor to. Things have occurred during the week that have shaken them up considerably and made them remember the many political crimes of their depraved partisan lives. The Chicago postmaster was given his walking papers in a very peremptory way. Chief clerk Nimmo, the statistician of the Treasury Department, who during the last campaign was so skillful in making figures lie, has been dismissed. Democrats have been appointed to a large number of Post offices, and as I remarked, it is believed that the long payed for reform in the personnel of the civil service has begun, and it is to be hoped it will not stop soon.

The smoldering Democratic impatience has broken out into fiercer flames in places. There was a conference held at Willard's Hotel last night, which is much talked about to-day. There were present Democratic Senators, Representatives and prominent citizens from Michigan, Wisconsin, Illinois, Indiana, Missouri, Kentucky, Virginia, and elsewhere, including several members of the National Democratic Committee. The discussions were lengthy and earnest. It was urged that President Cleveland and nearly all his Cabinet had refused to remove Republican office holders, even on the ground of offensive partisanship, and that throughout all the departments there were Republicans who had voluntarily contributed their time and money to the Republican campaign, but yet they were not only encouraged to remain, but it was deemed an offense to even suggest their removal.

The President has been informed that the greatest source of discontent was the Post-offices, which are not being filled by Democrats, while the Republicans are laughing defiance. They blamed the President for not demanding the resignation of First Assistant Postmaster-General Hay and appointing an assistant who could aid the Postmaster-General in filling the small post-offices. They blamed the President for not removing Republican office holders in the States and giving the offices to the victors.

After an interchange of views, it was generally agreed that if the Administration continued to keep Republicans in office, the President should be gently informed that he must look to the Republicans in Congress for support.

"The President told us," said one Senator to-day, "that we must be conservative in these matters. I did not understand that we carried the last election on a 'possum policy. We made a straight out fight and won. Whose was the victory? This thing of keeping Republicans in office because they might feel hurt if removed, may be the sort of politics they have up in Heaven, but it won't do on earth."

The latest "Democratic outrage" is found in the announcement that the clerks in the Pension Office did more work during April than in any previous month in its history, the increase amounting to an addition of nearly one half, with the same force as before. There has never been any doubt among well informed people that the average amount of work turned off every day by a Government clerk fell far below not only what he should accomplish, but also what the employee of any private establishment would have to render on penalty of dismissal for inefficiency, and this change in the Pension Office demonstrates the fact. The trouble was, that under the spoils system the political "striker" who forced his patron to give him a place in one of the Departments, knew that he could keep it so long as his Senator or Representative backed him, even if he were lazy and negligent, and so he had no incentive to do his best. Now on the other hand, the clerk is well aware that he is watched by a critical eye, and that incompetency will lead to his discharge, and so he goes to work in the same way as a man who wants to keep his place in a private business establishment. An incidental element in producing this better showing is the operation of the Civil Service Law, which has been the door through which a considerable percentage of the present employees in the Pension Office reached their desks, and which has thus sensibly raised the level of ability.

Is This Possible?

Report comes that General Grant's improved condition is due to the fact that he is using a "simple vegetable preparation" forwarded by one of our consuls from South America, and sent him by the Surgeon General! Is this possible? By an "unauthorized" remedy? Shocking!

And yet, if this "simple vegetable preparation" were owned and advertised by any one as a specific for this terrible disease, certainly the Surgeon General would not commend it, nor would bigoted physicians prescribe it! Nevertheless, it is a fact that many of the best proprietary medicines of the day, as the late Dr. J. G. Holland stated in Scribner's Monthly, were more successful than many physicians and most of them, it should be remembered, were at first discovered or used in actual medical practice. When, however, any shrewd persons, knowing of their virtue and foreseeing their popularity, secured and advertised them, then, in the opinion of the bigoted, all virtue went out of them!

Isn't this absurd!

We believe that a remedy, if properly made, is just as effective when put up, advertised and sold in bulk, as when doled out to patients at enormous expense by their physicians.

Why not?

If General Grant is getting better through a simple unauthorized vegetable preparation, where is the vaunted exclusive skill of the medical profession!

Appropos of the suspension of some very prominent members by the Medical and Chirurgical faculty of Maryland, for endorsing advertised remedies, the Baltimore American (April 25) says that "when a patent medicine goes on year after year widening its circle of believers, it is a pretty fair evidence that there is merit in it. The regular doctors may ignore it, and expel any of their members who use it, but when they do so their action looks more like envy against a successful remedy than a true desire to protect the public." The failure in the Garfield and Grant cases, the American thinks, and properly, has knocked professional pretensions higher than a kite.

But this is not a singular instance of unprofessional power over "incurable diseases." That "simple vegetable preparation" now everywhere known as Warner's safe cure, was once an authorized remedy; was pronounced a "good remedy" to the medical profession for the cure of kidney and liver disorders, malaria, general debility, spring fevers, female irregularities, etc., by many leading physicians, but when the formula was fully perfected, and the medicine was put up in bulk and advertised so that every sufferer might know of it and treat himself, then the profession turned upon it and let their patients die rather than to use it!

This is certainly a strange proceeding, but it is on a level with all the rules and regulations of a code which has gone so far as to forbid a physician displaying beyond a certain size his name and profession upon his sign!

But the world moves, and merit wins the fight!

Rheumatic.

I suffered with rheumatism for many months, at times unable to walk or get about only on crutches. I took eight bottles of Swift's Specific, and have been entirely relieved.

From the Mountains.

For many years I have been troubled with rheumatic affection. My right leg was covered with sores from the hip to the ankle—some of them large and painful, running a great deal. I tried everything I could think of or friends could suggest. The physicians did for what they could, but brought no permanent relief. My case was well known in this community, as well as the fearful sufferings I endured. Last fall, at the suggestion of a friend, I began the use of Swift's Specific. It produced a change so apparent that it astonished everybody, as one ulcer after another disappeared, and none were more astonished than myself. Six bottles produced an entire cure. My restoration is due entirely to the use of this medicine. It is the best blood purifier in the world, and will come nearer doing what is claimed for it than any medicine I have ever tried.

Not a Single Gray Hair.

"You may laugh and think me a vain thing," writes Mrs. J. R. C. of San Francisco, to a friend in this city, "but I have not a gray hair in my head, and yet (say to me) I am fifty and a day. Recently my hair was not only quite gray but quite thin, too. Parker's Hair Balm—made in New York, I think—did wonders for me. Try it if you have occasion. It really does what I say, and restores the color also. Not a dye, not greasy, highly perfumed. Only reliable hair dressing." 17 ct.

Italian antiquarians have discovered false teeth in a skull which had been excavated in an ancient Etruscan cemetery with many other curiosities at present stored away at the museum of antiquities at Corneto in Tuscany. The sepulchre out of which the skull was taken, dates, according to experts, from the fifth or sixth century B. C., and the false teeth are nothing but animal teeth attached to the human teeth by means of small gold plates.

Dr. Edward B. Foote as a representative of Electric Medicine, as a writer of popular medical literature, and as a physician stands prominent, and is, perhaps, throughout the world, better known by his writings than any other medical writer who has directed his teachings to the people rather than the profession. Born and raised among Connecticut settlers, on the "Western Reserve" in Ohio, he early began the work of many self-made men. Starting at the age of sixteen as "printer's devil" in a newspaper office, he worked his way to the editorial chair, and was severally connected with the most prosperous weekly of its time in Connecticut, and the first successful morning paper of Brooklyn, N. Y., but his main impulse had always been toward the study of medicine, and to this end business enterprises were sacrificed until in apprenticeship with a noted botanical specialist, and a course of study finishing with graduation, found him prepared to follow out the bent of his life to its completion. He was among the earliest of those who advocated the publication of anatomical, physiological and hygienic books for the masses, and his success in writing interesting and popular books has been conspicuous. His first and best known book, entitled "Medical Common Sense," reached a circulation of 250,000 copies, probably because of its originality and novelty in a new field; and his subsequent writings have been mainly in the same line, "Science in Story" having been written for the purpose of providing a readable book for children, and one which should make plain to their comprehension the facts which he considered it necessary for them to know concerning their own bodies.

In speaking of the late Prof. J. S. Smith, of Oxford, London, Nature remarks: "It has been said that in scientific thought, the best and most original ideas have always been conceived before the age of thirty." This is probably true, also, of the original of this portrait. His most radical thoughts were published in his first work, written before he was twenty-nine years of age, and though his pen is never long idle, his first success has not yet been equalled by subsequent work, though his "Plain Home Talk," a revision and enlargement of "Medical Common Sense," seems likely in time to obtain a circulation rivaling that of its predecessor.

In practice Dr. Foote has always been independent, progressive and original, always a foe of old fogeyism and trade-unionism in medicine; once a disciple of the old Thompsonian botanical school, as opposed to mineral and blood-letting practice, and now a staunch supporter of Electricism in all that the name implies. He has been actively engaged in the practice of his profession for thirty years, and as the portrait given here-with is from a recent photograph, hard work appears to agree with him, and he looks equal to twenty more of it.

Advertising Cheats!!!

"It has become so common to begin an article, in an elegant, interesting style, 'Then ran it into some advertisement that we avoid all such.'"

"And simply call attention to the merits of Hop Bitters in as plain, honest terms as possible."

"To induce people to give them one trial, which so proves their value that they will never use anything else."

"THE KEMERLY so favorably noticed in all the papers, Religious and secular, is 'Honest' in a large sale, and is supplanting all other medicines."

"There's no denying the virtues of the Hop plant, and the proprietors of Hop Bitters have shown great shrewdness and ability."

"In compounding a medicine whose virtues are so palpable to every one's observation."

"No!"

"She lingered and suffered along, pining away all the time for years."

"The doctors doing her no good?"

"And at last was cured by this Hop Bitters the papers say so much about."

"Indeed! Indeed!"

"How thankful we should be for that medicine."

A Daughter's Misery.

"Eleven years our daughter suffered on a bed of misery."

"From a complication of kidney, liver, rheumatic trouble and Nervous debility."

"Under the care of the best physicians, who gave her disease various names."

"But no relief."

"And now she is restored to us in good health by as simple a remedy as Hop Bitters, that we had shunned for years before using it."—THE PARENTS.

Father is Getting Well.

"My daughter says: 'How much better father is since he used Hop Bitters.'"

"He is getting well after his long suffering from a disease declared incurable."

"And we are so glad that he used your Bitters."—A LADY OF UTAH, N. Y.

MOTHER'S FRIEND.

A Precious Boon to Woman.

WORDS OF PRAISE.

I most earnestly entreat every female expecting to be confined to use Mother's Friend. Consult its directions. I will add that during a long obstetrical practice (forty years), I have never known it to fail to produce a safe and quick delivery. H. J. HOLMES, M. D.

A lady from one of the counties of Middle Georgia, who has been acting midwife for many years, writes: "I have disposed of all the Mother's Friend you sent me, and I am delighted with it. In every instance where it has been used, its effects have been all that I could ask. I consider it a great blessing."

A gentleman writes: "My wife used your Mother's Friend at her fourth confinement, and her testimony is that she passed through it with the least suffering, and recovered from its effects in much less time. She also recommended it to a lady friend who was about to be confined for the first time, and she says: 'I have never seen any one pass through this great trial with so much ease and so little suffering.'"

A QUICK AND EASY TIME.

A distinguished physician of Mississippi writes: "Every one expecting to be confined should use the Mother's Friend, for during a long obstetrical practice I have never known it to fail to produce a quick and safe delivery."

This remedy is one about which we cannot publish certificates, but it is a most wonderful liniment to be used after the first two or three months.
